1 About me

I specialize in delivering digital experiences that redefine, reshape the users vision, focusing on details and pushing the boundaries to build and create outstanding work for each customer. Passion defines my work, and since 5 years I do what I love best, working as a web designer for different agencies and as freelancer on various projects. As a designer, I rely on my experience in design, concept development and work skills to bring a creative process to all my projects, while I keep myself up to date with the new trends and technologies in the digital world, to give my clients the best possible service, for the success they deserve.

Through my projects and work process, I like to challenge my clients to consistently innovate and strive to engage forward thinking focusing on their brands, services and products they represent. My objective is to use my potential to the maximum, gaining experience in a professional environment, gathering simultaneously new knowledge applicable in the field that I work, creating something awesome for each customer in a unique and original way.

Quality and trust is the principle that guides my work and it's the strong base of my relation and interaction with each of my clients. Fun is a bonus for me, that comes with the passion for what I love to do. Collaborating with me will definitely give you a nice experience and a memorable impression on the market for the business you represent.
